Circular Letter
Rural Electrification - No. 2

October 2, 1935

To State Directors of Extension:

We are enclosing two circulars, entitled, "Light and Power for the Farm", and "What Every Farm Leader Should Know About Farm Electrification", recently issued by the Rural Electrification Administration. The circular entitled "Light and Power for the Farm" contains information on the need of the REA, guiding rules, the various ways to obtain electrification, the cost of installation, etc.

"What Every Farm Leader Should Know About Farm Electrification" contains information about sources of funds, how they are to be used, agencies that are authorized to extend this service, and other information of interest to rural home owners.

Copies of these circulars are also being sent to State and assistant State leaders, district agents, county agents, and assistant county agents in agriculture and home demonstration work, agricultural engineering specialists, home management and furnishing specialists, extension editors, and assistant extension editors.

If desired, a limited number of additional copies may be obtained upon request to this office.

Very truly yours,

C. W. Warburton
